

The Freedom to Explore (Words Monty Lynds 2006 –Tune Saint Peters)

1. I thank you God for giving me
The freedom to explore
Unfettered by the words of some
I'll learn to know you more.

2. I see the sun, the moon, the stars
The universe so grand.
Ten billion years or more of work
All crafted by your hand.

3. Nature abounds, the pulse of life
Reveals your presence clear.
Above, below, within, without
I touch, I see, I hear.

4. Jesus the gateway of my soul
I heed your songs of love.
Oh, Holy Spirit enter in,
Descending as a dove.

5. I disregard the words of those
Who claim the only way.
The prize is theirs and theirs alone
They hear the Bible say.

5. Oh God of Christian, Hindu, Jain,
Of Muslim, Sikh and Jew.
Oh God of each and every way,
I put my trust in you.

6. In love we can discern your joy,
Your vision and your scheme.
A love of life, a life of love
Becomes our holy dream.

7. I thank you God for giving me
The freedom to explore.
Unfettered by the words of some
I've learnt to love you more
